DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statements filed 3/1/05 and 8/26/05 have been received and made of record. Note the acknowledged PTO 1449 forms enclosed herewith.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As regards claims 18, "the reactive system" lacks proper antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 3772

5. Claims 12-13 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S.

Patent Application No.202/0164911 ("Cunningham et al.")

As regards claims 12-13, Cunningham et al. disclose in para. [0005-006] that it is known to insert a high modulus fibre in either the weft or warp direction of knitted fabrics as the knit fabric is being formed on the knitting machine. Thus, the subject matter of claims 12 and 13 are not novel.

As regards claim 14, ^{note the} ~~not in~~ disclosure of fiberglass in para. [0005].

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

8. Claim 15 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over ("Cunningham et al.).

As regards claim 15, paras. [0005-0006] fail to teach that the ballistic resistant yarn known and used by the prior art is an aramid fiber. However, Cunningham et al. disclose that aramid fibers are ballistic yarns. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to use any well known ballistic resistant yarn to reinforce the fabric since the substitution of one yarn for another yarn is within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

As regards claim 17, Cunningham et al. disclose in paras. [0005-0006] that a knitting machine is used, but fails to disclose Raschel knitting machine, thereby failing to teach a double needle bar Raschel knit for the (fabric) substrate. However, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to use a double needle bar Raschel knitting machine depending upon the knit desired.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 1-11 are allowed.
10. Claim 18 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
11. Claims 16 and 19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
